

Tuesday, April 2, 6pm Eastern, New Buffalo Library
The King: the Rise, Fall and Resurrection of Elvis Presley

Blessed with an amazing voice, good looks and gyrations that drove fans wild, Elvis Aron Presley changed the course of American music and made rock and roll controversial. But Elvis spent money as fast as it came in, refused to confront a manager who put him in scores of mediocre films, and fell victim to drug abuse. Since his death in August 1977, the King has been resurrected as millions of fans have flocked to Graceland, watched movies of his life, and purchased all sorts of Elvis memorabilia. Join us as we remember the original rock star, the King of Rock and Roll, Elvis Presley.

Presenter: Tim Moore, Lake Michigan College. Tim's spirited presentations on events and people in U.S. history have made him a favorite in the Community Forum Series.

Presented by

