Three Lyric Opera Tenors Free Family Concert

Singing the Hits From Opera to Broadway

Three tenors of the Lyric Opera of Chicago, Matthew Daniel, Joseph Fosselman, and Cameo Humes, will be performing in a School of American Music free family concert, singing the hits from opera to Broadway. They will be accompanied by Lisa Kristina on piano. The concert will take place on Sunday, April 28, 2024 at 3:00 p.m. Eastern time at the Episcopal Church of the Mediator, 14280 Red Arrow Hwy., Harbert, Mich. Admission to the concert is free, but a food item donation is requested for Neighbor by Neighbor, a nonprofit connecting vulnerable residents of southwest Berrien County with resources and services. Donations of pull-tab cans of soups, stews, tuna, ravioli, spaghetti, or anything that is easy to heat are requested.

The performers have extensive performance experience in opera and other musical genres. Matthew Daniel is also a voice instructor for the School of American Music. Their biographies are at <https://www.schoolofamericanmusic.com/biographies>. Donna M. Mitchell, Executive Director for the school, said, "This amazingly talented group of classically-trained singers will be presenting a very special and enjoyable concert. Please join us!"

The nonprofit School of American Music (SAM) provides education, performance, and audience opportunities in music in the Southwest Michigan area. The SAM Family Concert Series is made possible by a grant from the Pokagon Fund and donations to the school, and by Episcopal Church of the Mediator providing the venue.
